Who we are

Who is providing this notice?
BCCU means Bellwether Community Credit Union.

What we do

How does BCCU protect my personal information?
To protect your personal information from unauthorized access and use, we use security measures that comply with federal law. These measures include computer safeguards and secured files and buildings. We also maintain other physical, electronic, and procedural safeguards to protect your information and we limit access to information to those employees for whom access is appropriate.

How does BCCU collect my personal information?
We collect your personal information, for example, when you:
- Open an account
- Give us contact information
- Apply for a loan
- Use your credit or debit card
- Seek advice about your investments
- Provide account information
- Make deposits or withdrawals from your account
We also collect your personal information from others, such as credit bureaus, affiliates, or other companies.

Why can’t I limit all sharing?
Federal law gives you the right to limit only:
- Sharing for affiliates’ everyday business purposes – information about your credit worthiness
- Affiliates from using your information to market to you
- Sharing nonaffiliates to market to you
State laws and individual companies may give you additional rights to limit sharing.

What happens when I limit sharing for an account I hold jointly with someone
Your choices will apply to everyone on your account.

Definitions

Affiliates
